NOTICE ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE 2019-20

Dear Students,

We would like to take this opportunity to remind you that Don Bosco College has a strict policy against ragging in any form. Ragging is not just a violation of college rules but is also illegal under the directives of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the laws of the land. It goes against the principles of respect, dignity, and mutual understanding that we uphold at our institution.

We believe in fostering a nurturing environment where every student feels valued and respected. Ragging not only undermines this ethos but also creates an atmosphere of fear and intimidation, which hampers the learning process and personal growth of individuals.

Therefore, we urge all freshers to refrain from participating in or promoting any activities that could be construed as ragging. It is our collective responsibility to ensure that our campus remains free from such harmful practices.

We have established an Anti-Ragging Committee to oversee the implementation of anti-ragging measures and to address any complaints or concerns related to ragging. If you ever witness or experience any form of ragging, we encourage you to report it immediately to a member of the Anti-Ragging Committee or any college authority. Your identity will be kept confidential, and appropriate action will be taken against the perpetrators.
