PETROS DANCE AGREEMENT

Term : Petros dance studio shall commence providing services on July 2017 and shall terminate on June 20 19.

Scope of services: PDS agree to supply Don Bosco College Kohima with following professional services.
Jazz, Street Jazz, Hip Hop, Contemporary, Modern dance, Bollywood.

Duration of services :- Two class in a week
One hour each class.

Hiring and Training Dance Instructors: PDS will externally hire trained dance instructors, who will conduct the class, aware of their duties and responsibilities as an PDS! Instructor. PDS guarantees a high quality instructor, who has previous experience in teaching dance and childcare.

Weekly Dance Classes/Consistency: PDS will provide weekly dance class. We promise to provide as much consistency as possible to its students. Short of major illness or emergency, if the instructor cannot be there PDS will provide a substitute. In some rare cases, if a substitute is not available, PDS will communicate with the School for the best solution.

Service Learning: At least once a year, PDS will carry out service programming to students. This can be in the form of a performance or other service project.

Master Classes: At least once a year, PDS will bring in an artist to teach a different dance style such as Salsa or Hula dance, to movement such as Ballroom or Zumba. The weekly instructor will participate with their students during these master classes.

Performance Opportunities: At least once per year, students will be given the opportunity to perform their dances for the community. This can happen in various ways: a recital for parents, a showcase for the PDS community, etc.

Communication: PDS will be forthcoming with any changes and will keep continual communication with the progress of classes.

Staff Support During Dance Class: The College is expected to have staff either in the room during the dance class or available in the building to help the instructor in case of emergency and general reprimanding support.

Transportation to Performances : When performances occur outside the location, the school and college is expected to help PDS plan safe transportation of students and an accompanying staff member to the performance location.

Payment: Don Bosco College Kohima shall pay the Petros dance Studio a fee of Rs.19,000 (Nineteen thousand) per month as a fix salary on or before date 7th of first week. Termination:- : Don Bosco College Kohima state may terminate this agreement at anytime by providing thirty (30) days written notice to PDS.
