

REPORT ON CERTIFICATE COURSE LEARNING ENGLISH THROUGH LITERATURE

The Department of English, Don Bosco College Kohima has offered a certificate course on Learning Language through Literature for the 1st Semester Students from 1st -15th July, 2019. The initiative was taken with an objective to develop in the students the ability and confidence to process, understand and examine the different kinds of texts they encounter in everyday life and also to enable the students to understand and identify social contexts and ethical frameworks in the text they encounter. 164 students availed the course. During the course, one formative assessment test was conducted to monitor the student progress and provide feedback for improvement. A summative assessment test is conducted for a total of 100 marks, with 40 marks as the qualifying mark. Certificates are distributed to the students who successfully completed the course and met the qualifying marks.

Course Outcomes

- ❖ The students will be able to understand different kinds of texts
- ❖ The students will be embedded with new vocabulary
- ❖ The students can make use of the textual dialogue in everyday speech.

HOD
Pinky Sagolse
Coordinator, Department of English
Don Bosco College, Kohima
Certificate Course
Learning English Language through Literature

