A Talk on Writing Skills

Date: 22nd August 2020

The Literary Club conducted “A talk on writing skill” with Dr. Imlienla Imchen from Nagaland University as the guest speaker. Club members were oriented with the significance of writing and the various ways and strategies to develop writing skills. The speaker pointed out on the ‘unsatisfactory’ writing skill among Naga students and thereby urged the students to develop the habit of reading as once it is developed, good quality writing will eventually improve and enhance the writing skill of an individual. Importance of writing in easy language, revision and reading out etc were the key points of the talk. Welcome note was delivered by Dr. Imtinaro Longkumer, coordinator, Literary Club while Medovilie Solo BA 3rd semester invoked God’s presence. The programme was chaired by Grace Keditsu, BA 5th semester and vote of thanks was proposed by Hemato Sheqi BA 3rd semester. The programme was held via Google Meet at 1:00 PM.

3 day workshop on Basic Online Teaching

Since the global pandemic of COVID-19 and closure of educational institutions alongwith all others, educational institutions in Nagaland too had to shift their base to virtual platforms to conduct classes online. To assist college and school teachers in this crucial shift from traditional to virtual teaching, the Department of Education, Don Bosco College Kohima with support from Nagaland Board of School Education conducted a three day workshop on Basics of Online Teaching from 10th to 12th August 2020.

In the three day workshop, teachers were oriented on Virtual Management of Class and Evaluation- Google Classroom, Google Forms by Mr. Deepak Sahu and Miss MadhuriPadaya from K.J Somaiya College of Science and Commerce, Mumbai; Virtual Delivery and Videos in teaching- Google Meet, Zoom, Virtual boards by Dr. SoyhunloSebu, Regional Institute of Education, NCERT, Bhopal and Virtual Delivery and Videos- Creating and Editing videos using OBS and OSVE by Dr. SangeetaPethiya Regional Institute of Education, NCERT, Bhopal. Participants were also provided with practice sessions and assignments after delivery of lessons.

Earlier, while inaugurating the workshop, Fr. Dr. P. Suresh, Principal, Don Bosco College Kohima welcomed the gathering and Mrs. Asano Sekhose, Chairman Nagaland Board of School Education motivated and encouraged the participating teachers. The session was chaired by Mrs. Jarani Mao, Assistant Professor, Don Bosco College Kohima.

A brief Valedictory programme marked the end of the three day workshop, where several participants expressed words of gratitude. The session was chaired by Ms. SentuileDaime, Assistant Professor, Don Bosco College Kohima.

A total of 128 teachers from both college and schools in Nagaland registered for the workshop. The workshop was convened by Dr. ImtinaroLongkumer, Head & Assistant Professor, Department of Education, Don Bosco College, Kohima.

On 28th August 2020, the Political Science Department of Don Bosco College Kohima conducted an 'Invited Talk' on the theme "National Education Policy and the Future of College Education in Nagaland." The resource person for the invited talk was Dr. Kanato Chophy, New India Foundation Fellow, Bangaluru, India. He animated the students on the New Education Policy (NEP) approved by the Union cabinet on July 29, 2020 after a gap of 34 years. He highlighted the students that NEP will change the Pedagogy of the whole structure across the whole nation affecting both the government as well as private intuitions. He clearly elaborated the features and the characteristics of NEP, then challenged the students of political science department to make research study on digital democracy. Because a significant feature of NEP amongst many, allows a procedure to introduce decoding/digital starting from classes five and six. Animation by the resource person was then followed by interaction. A number of students raised questions regarding the features of NEP which includes employment oriented courses, scrapping of M.Phil. and the change in structure formula etc.

The programme was moderated by Mr. Zupenthung Shitiri (HoD, Political Science Department) and the invocation prayer was pronounced by Miss. Petekhrienuo Kulnu (5th Semester, Political Science Department). Dr. Tovika (Asst. Prof, Department of Political Science) introduced and felicitated the Resource Person and the programme concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Ma'am Kezienuo (*Asst. ## Department of Education, DBCK – Activity Report

Activity- Orientation on Soft Skills, dated 26th September 2020

The Department of Education, organized an intra-departmental orientation programme as part of its second departmental activity. The programme was held on 26th September 2020 at 1:00 PM on the theme “Soft Skills”, which was oriented by Dr Imtinaro Longkumer, Head & Assistant Professor, Department of Education, DBCK and Mrs Jarani Mao, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, DBCK.

In the first part of the programme, Dr Imtinaro highlighted the concept of soft skills and stressed on the need for students/individuals to have soft skills along with hard skills. It was emphasized that soft skills are a requirement to handle interpersonal relations, to take appropriate decisions, to communicate effectively and also to have good impression and impact to gain professional development. She further oriented and encouraged the students to build and work towards acquiring the various kind of soft skills.

Mrs Jarani in her talk oriented the students on the skill of public speaking. Stating that public speaking skill allows us to form connections, influence decisions, and motivate change, she encouraged the students to develop and work on the skill. She further highlighted the various steps on how to effectively speak in public platforms.

The programme was successfully conducted via Google Meet with a total of 3 teachers and sixty seven students from Education Department, DBCK. The programme was chaired by Neinguzonuo Linyii, BA 3rd Semester. Kekhriesituo Tseikha of BA 3rd Semester invoked God’s presence, while Vichüsanuo Rutsa of BA 3rd Semester proposed the vote of thanks.

Report: Rovers & Rangers Club Activity

Rovers & Rangers of Don Bosco College, Kohima organized a webinar on the theme, Trekking Destinations in Nagaland. The program was conducted through Google Meet on 19th September, 2020. Online event started with a mass prayer, after which the the presenters took turns to present their papers:

- Simu: Trekking in Shilloi lake, Phek
- Thungchibeni: Rock climbing in Totsu Cliff, Wokha
- Anenya: Trekking and camping in Mount Terogunyu, Tseminyu
- Libeni: Exploring Doyang River and Mount Tiyi, Wokha
- Gedion Thono: Zisunyu village

Each presenter gave a detailed explanation about the area and its surrounding. Reasons on why one should explore these destinations were also specified in the presentation. Through these presentations, we were able to gain information on possible new areas our club can venture into in the near future. It has also broadened our thoughts and at the same time, became more aware on the many scopes for trekking and camping in Nagaland .
