Don Bosco College, Kohima

Report of the Second Activity: 26/09/2020

The department of Sociology, Don Bosco College, Kohima conducted a second activity on 26th September 2020; “Documentation of Culture” on the theme ‘Preserving our Cultural Heritage’. The programme was conducted online, venue; Google Meet from 2:30 to 3:30 pm. Mr. Sanihe Arüjü, an Assistant Professor was the teachers- in-charge for the programme. Mrs. Viphreseno Yhokha, an Assistant Professor was the moderator for the programme. Mr. Sanihe Arüjü delivered a short speech on the significance of preserving cultural heritage. He highlighted about the material and non material culture for which the students need to document their culture for further reference. The students of BA Sociology Honours from first, third and fifth semester participated the programme. Dr. Velhou Koza, HOD & Assistant Professor instructed the students to submit the documents to the department. The students were excited to learn about their culture and were willing to submit their documents. This documentation of culture will be beneficial for the college in particular and the Naga society in general.

Departmental Activity
28 August, 2020

The Department of History, Don Bosco College, Kohima, conducted departmental activity on 28th August, 2020, through Google Meet. The activity was a competition based on the theme Folkloric – Naga Chapter. Mr. Verusa Kezo and Mr. Megolekho, passed out students from the department were invited to be judges for the competition.

Ms. Awale Tep, B.A. 5th semester chaired the programme. Invocation was pronounced by Ms. Lituna Jakha, B.A. 5th semester and welcome speech was delivered by Mr. Kekhriesetuo John Sorhie, B.A. 5th semester. Ms. Tsutshoweu-ü Sekhamo, Asst. Professor, Department of History, gave a short talk on Folkloric. She highlighted that folklore is a traditional belief of a community and is an informal expressive culture. It has the ability to adapt and change but remains traditional. It helps us to better understand a society and its culture. Welcoming and introducing of the Judges was done by Dr. Lanukumla. Ho.D, Department of History, DBCK. Mr. Yansarhomo Khuvung gave the Vote of thanks.

All together seventeen (17) participants took part in the competition. All the participants performed spectacularly narrating the stories with great enthusiasm. The stories were of different genres. Jennifer Wotsa B.A. 1st semester who narrated The beautiful girl who turned into Anishe flower recieved the first prize. Dzieseneituo Tsiekha, B.A. 3rd semester narrated The tale of Meralieke, got the second prize and Thingchibeni Yanthan, B.A. 5th semester narrated The story of Yanpvüho received the third prize.

The competition was truly a delightful experience for all the participants. The Department of History hopes to conduct more of this kind in the near future.
