Concept Note

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought changes in teaching and learning process. These days most students and teachers work from home. At this scenario, Department of History, Don Bosco College, Kohima, Nagaland proposes to conduct a National Level Virtual Lecture Series on the theme Mapping Tribal Histories inviting academic specialist to give lectures in their field. The virtual series will bring together specialists, including practitioners, academic experts of different disciplines and research scholars. It will not be a simple lecture series, scholars using online mode will interact with the experts and finally the lectures will be published in book form and made available for general readers, researchers and specialist alike.

The College at Glance

Don Bosco College, Kohima (DBCK) was established in 2015 by the Salesian Province Dimapur. The college is affiliated to Nagaland University and recognized by UGC. Since then the college has witnessed a meteoric rise in the number of students seeking admission in the different courses offered by it. It is one of the most sought after colleges in Nagaland. The dedication, commitment and loyalty of the teaching and non-teaching staff, along with the enthusiasm and achievements of the students over the years, have contributed largely to bring the college to its present position. DBCK remains strongly committed to the education of youth at the undergraduate level.

About the Department

The Department of History, Don Bosco College, Kohima embarked on its journey in 2015. At present there are three teaching faculty members guiding 89 students taking BA History honors during the academic session of 2019 – 2020. The department has produced good result both honors and general in the last university exams. The faculty members and students of the department are regularly participating in the college and other extension activities.

In 2018, the Department of History has organized National Seminar on the theme Historical Developments in Northeast India: Trends and Perspectives. The Virtual Lecture Series is another platform taking up by the department.

Limitations of previous research

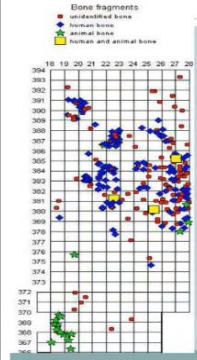

- Lack of detailed archaeological report in the previous excavation.
- Proper site maps as reference for future excavations.
- Number of trenches excavated including dimensions of test pits, types of artifacts uncovered from each level/layer in relation to their stratigraphic context.
- Lack of understanding on nature of the site cultural history.
