WORKSHOP ON CREATIVE WRITING

Date: 19.07.22

By Adotsa C Nyuwi

A workshop on creative writing under the Capacity Building Programme was organized at Don Bosco College, Kohima on 19th July, 2022 for the purpose of developing the skills of the students in writing. The special guest for the one-day programme was Dr. Rukulu Puro who is the founder and chief instructor of CUE Academy, Kohima. The workshop which started at 9:00 am was chaired by Manakali A Yeptho from the 5th Semester. In her key note address, Puro highlighted the purpose of creative writing which is to express one's ideas and personal thoughts. She also mentioned a quote by Jennifer Greenwood which says- "You need to turn ideas into stories that matter to people." She introduced two of her books as well and encouraged the students to work on better creative writing.

The students had a fruitful learning by involving in writing their own short stories. The workshop finally winded up with a vote of thanks by Chathasezo Charles.

Report of workshop conducted by science block DBCK on 19th July 2022

On 19th July 2022, the science block of DBCK comprising of Department of Chemistry, Botany and Zoology organized a workshop on 'sexual harassment' for the students, faculties and the non-teaching staff of the science block. The objectives of the orientation were to sensitize the students as well as the teaching and non-teaching staff against sexual harassment at work place and campus, and to bring an awareness of the policy on these issues and the support system available at the college. The resource person for the workshop was Dr. Lanukumla, Assistant Professor, Department of History and the Convenor of Sexual Harassment committee, DBCK.

Altogether, there were 20 participants (11 students, 6 Faculties and 3 non-teaching staffs). The workshop was chaired by Mr. Khikeye Semy, Asst. Prof, Department of Botany and Miss Patricia Kiewhuo, Asst. Prof, Department of Zoology invoke God's presence for the workshop. The resource person Dr. Lanukumla explained the definition of Sexual Harassment and covered many points. She has stated that the sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexually determined behavior as physical contact, demand or request for sexual favors, sexually colored remarks, showing pornography, any other unwanted physical, verbal or nonverbal conduct of sexual nature the unwelcome idle chatter of sexual nature, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature. Also introduced Guidelines, complaint mechanism, preventive steps, college authority responsibilities etc. She explained about the Internal committee cells in institutions which will consider all sexual harassment faced by students/faculty. She also enlightened the participants on the punishments for the guilty. She also mentioned about the commitment DBCK has made to provide a congenial and conducive atmosphere, and that there have been zero case on sexual harassment for the past years. She concluded her enriching presentation by saying 'Don't keep silent' and to approach the authority through proper channel if any faces harassments. At the end, students and faculties asked doubts to the resource person and the speaker cleared their doubts. The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Shürhovie Tsürho, Asst. Prof Department of Chemistry followed by light refreshment.

There was a series of studies done of the management of time in an interview. The management and introduction to it was taken by the Resource person, Miss Alovi. She is certified in Management Skills for Fresher in Career Guidance. The students were taught on interview management which included communication skills, on the leadership skills, experience, and qualification of the individual, the background and academics. The workshop consisted of the golden rules of interview process and the commonly asked questions and the ace of base which commodates on making students more confident in the future. The training workshop had the objective to showcase on the different managements. There was active participation among the students when questions or opinions were raised. The participants gave prominent answers which intrigued more on the subject and were asked to focus on specific objectives, to identify priorities, bring about certain skills in an interview.

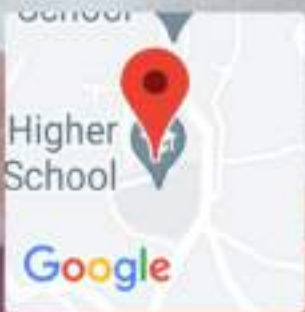

The main objective of the workshop was to teach in advance the matters of interview management, on the confidence, conflict resolution, resourcefulness, non-verbal communication, productivity, time management, strategic storytelling, stress management, leadership, growth mindset, public speaking. It also follows up on to prepare a list of questions, maintain good eye contact. Students would be more prepared in future endeavors. The program turned out for the best since there was student's participation in huge number, the presentation carried out was subtle and clear and even online links were provided to further help the cause of students. Alongside, Miss Alovi, other teachers were present to look after the program, Miss Tsutshowe-u Sekhamo, Dr. Lanuakumla Ao, Mr. Lokho Anthony and Miss Senjano N Murry. The workshop resulted in a vast participation of individuals and gave much impetus to bring about measures while taking an interview. It ended at 10:00 AM and the students and the teachers gathered for a photo session and dispersed after taking their attendance. The Capacity Building Program was taken to build up the confidence of students while seeking for employment in the future and to receive a better outlook of themselves in it.

Report on workshop on 1st Departmental Activity (science block)

The First departmental activity was conducted in the form of a workshop on the topic 'Introduction to basic sciences' based on the theme "Igniting young minds" on 20th August 2022 organised by Science Block Don Bosco College Kohima.

The Class 12 science students of DBHSs Kohima were the participants of the workshop where a total of 23 students along with their class teacher Sir Shahji Paul were present. All the B.Sc. 1st semester students along with the teachers and lab attendants were present except one student from zoology department who had been granted medical leave by the Principal was absent.

The programme began at 9:30 with the first inaugural session at room no. NF3. The session was chaired by Dr Kizukala Jamir where she gave a basic introduction of what is studied under life sciences and chemistry. She also gave a brief highlight about the hands-on experiments and model presentations that were to be carried out by each respective department. Gods' blessings were invoked by Dr Shurhovie Tsurho followed by a welcome note which was delivered by Miss Patricia Kiewhuo where she welcomes all the students and teacher participants. She also thanked the Don Bosco College administration and Principal of Don Bosco Higher Secondary School and student's participant and class teacher of class 12 Sir Shahji Paul and the inaugural session ended with the college anthem.

The students and the teachers proceeded to their respective laboratories i.e., botany lab, chem lab and zoology lab for the technical session.

The botany department did a hands-on experiment on the topic "Know your urine (sugar content/albumin/uric acid) where the results of the urine showed presence of albumin and sugar suggesting that water intake should be increased.

The chemistry department also did a hands-on experiment on the topic "magic with $\sim \log H$, lets formulate sanitizers, and bye plastics, hello bioplastics" and few lucky students were given lab made hand sanitizers.

The Zoology department demonstrated model presentations on the following topics "life cycle of Plasmodium vivax, structure of DNA and RNA, immunity and sex determination" where B.Sc. students explained their respective topics and 5 minutes for questions and discussion was given where the participants showed positive response by asking questions and doubts were cleared.

The programme ended with a vote of thanks which was delivered by Mr. Khikeya Semy. where he thanked each student, teachers and participants for availing their time and encourage them to come anytime in case of any query.

Overall, the workshop was a fruitful and successful one.

Report on 1st Department activity for even semester 2023

On 4th February 2023 the first department activity “Creativity Day cum Presentation” for the department of Psychology was organized under the theme “New and Emerging field of Psychology” at 9:00 AM in the College campus.

The objectives of department activity

- To refresh the minds of the students by engaging in the activities of their interest.
- To bring out the best of the students.
- To increase cohesiveness and co-operation among the students.
- To inculcate the habit of learning beyond the framed syllabus.
- To instill in the students the importance of delving into research for broader and wider scope of learning.

The Program was chaired by Assistant Professor Sopfunuo. The program started by gracing in God’s blessing which was pronounced by Miss LovinuLcho, 4th semester. Subsequently, the first session started by segregating the students based on their area of interest. Some of the activities that the students engaged themselves were singing, reading of novels, writing articles, sketching, face painting, make-up, crocheting, making bookmarks, making origami, physical activities etc. After the activity hour, the students were given time to share their experiences.

The second session started by group presentation under the theme. The groups presented on media psychology, forensic psychology, environment psychology, peace psychology, animal psychology, aviation psychology, sports psychology and industrial-organization psychology. All the groups shared interesting and many facts of the mentioned topics which created inquisitive among the listeners. The faculties present in the program also gave constructive feedback and congratulated the students for their good efforts. Lastly, a note of gratitude was proposed by Miss VenoVese 2nd semester.

The program was attended by 28 students from 2nd semester, 28 students from 4th semester and three faculties of the department.

Learning Outcome

From their experiences that have been shared, it can be conferred that the students enjoyed and relaxed themselves from the first session of the activity. They also understood the importance of self-time and engagement in activities of their interest. In the second session, the participants also learn the broad range of the new fields in psychology.

The Department of English, Don Bosco College Kohima, conducted a One Day Capacity Building Programme on 18th Of March, 2023 under the theme "Digital Culture". The programme was organized under the supervision of Dr. Toshimenla Kichu, Asst. Prof.& Head of Dept. of English. The programme took place in College hall T2 at 9 am and was attended by Ninety- Seven students along with the faculties. The 6thsem had the privileged of initiating the programme with KeviruyaChielieas chairperson, invocation by TshekuloWezahfollowed by a melodious performance by 6th Sem girls. Ikozoing Hemang gave a motivational speech based on his personal experience as a college student. He talked about the difference between the online classes and offline classes and it's impact upon his education. He also talked about what success really means to him and shares how grateful he is for all the good times he had in this college. He encouraged the students by saying that everyone will succeed in different ways at the end of the day and we should be grateful about it. His speech was really appreciated by everyone. The stage was then given to Sir Tsutipang Jamir, the resource person of the day. He spoke on Digital Culture with his main focus being how to help the students develop critical thinking which has been declining with the dependence on technology. He talked about GAFAM i.e Goggle, Apple, Facebook, Amazon and Microsoft and said all these technologies have restrained our capacity and capability to think beyond what is already provided. He also talked about Phubbing which is the act of snobbing someone instead of paying attention to them when they are together and warned the students not to be Phubbers. He also talked about Hypodmeic Needle theory / Magic Bullet theory which talks about how we are overshadowed by the truth provided by the Media and our truth and beliefs are developed accordingly. Spiral of Silence was also touched upon by him whereby an individual submits to the majority and advised the students not to develop the fear of missing out from the crowd. He also further emphasized on the Culture industry and States that all these things are the reason why one cannot develop critical thinking. He ended his session by assigning story writing to the students under certain conditions. The stage was then taken over by the 6thsemboys for a special performance. Adotsa C Nyuwi beautifully wrapped up the entire programme with his words of gratitude. This was followed by singing of the College Anthem, light refreshment and group photos.

Report on 2nd Department activity for even semester 2023

On 18th March 2023, Department of Psychology organized capacity building under the topic "Mental Health First Aid" at 9:30 AM in the College Campus.

Objectives of the department activity

- Awareness of mental health
- Helps to break down the stigma around mental ill-health.
- Helping the students how to recognize the signs and symptoms of common mental health issues.
- Provides students with the basic skills and confidence to provide initial support to a person who is developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis.
- Teaching the students to signpost others toward professional help.

The programme was chaired by Adane Pfolibo of 2nd Semester, followed by invocation led by Mereyani of 4th Semester. Welcome note was address by Idwabeule Liegise 2nd Semester, followed by a Special no. performed by the boys of 4th Semester.

The resource person, Miss Vetalü Nyekha presided over the programme, addressing the students on the topic "Mental Health First Aid". She gave much importance on how we should all be aware of the First Aid of Mental Health and how we can be helpful to those in need by offering initial support until professional help is received or until the crisis resolves. She talked about the goals of First Aid in Mental Health i.e to reduce the stigma, provide help to prevent the mental health problem from becoming more serious and to promote recovery of good mental health. She also highlighted on how we need to be aware of the cues and indication in a person's mood or behaviour, to understand the signs and symptoms of an emerging or worsening mental health problem. These signs may include hallucinations, such as hearing or seeing things that aren't there, extreme mood changes, significant drop in performance at work or school, difficulty concentrating, significant withdrawal from friends and family, neglecting self-care (such as neglecting personal appearance and hygiene, and eating poorly), suicidal thoughts or behaviors along with destructive or high-risk behaviour.

Emphasizing about these problems, Miss Nyekha also stressed on what we can do on our part to provide first aid until the person has received appropriate professional treatment.

She said that one should approach the person in a comfortable space, make them see that we are concerned and help them see that we value their existence. We should respect the person's own interpretation of their symptoms and incase the person doesn't want to talk, we should encourage them to talk to someone else they trust. The speaker maintained that sometimes even with the best intentions, we can make matters worse. Thus when reaching out to someone one must avoid being hostile or sarcastic, trying to cure them or solve their problems all the time. Then she concluded her speech by reminding the students that one should never blame or belittle and dismiss their feelings but instead emphasized on listening and avoiding giving any advices. We should hold their pain with them with simple questions and affirmations at the same time be aware that our job is to not fix them but that they just want to be heard.

The programme concluded with Neingunuo4th Semester delivering the Vote of Thanks, followed by photo session and distribution of light refreshment.
